WANTED: MOST ANYTHING FROM THE STATE OF LOUISIANA for my collection. What can you offer me? Cindy Grellman, P.O. Box 951988, Lake Mary, FL 32795-1988

FROM THE MAILBAG:

FROM: Scriptor Kazuma Oyama, 38 Lauone Loop, Wahiawa, Hawaii

My interest in coal company scrip is recent but my interest in coal mines date back to 1944 in a U. S. hospital in Italy. There was a wounded soldier from Pennsylvania who used to talk about the rough life of a coal miner. It was very similar to the conditions I experienced as an employee for a sugar cane plantation here in Hawaii. Some plantations paid employees in tokens in the 1800's and early 1900's that were good only at their company stores. These tokens are extremely scarce and high priced. Later all the plantations issued metal tags called "bango" to each employee. The word "bango" is of Japanese origin and refers to "numbers". The number on the tag was the employee's identification for time-keeping and payroll purposes and also served as a "charge card" at the plantation company's store. The plantations stopped using the bango system several years ago and since then the metal tags have become Hawaiiana collectibles with ever increasing prices due to the limited quantity for each plantation.
